NEW YORK, MONDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1887.

THE BULLS A LITTLE AHEAD.

A BRISK BATTLE IN WHICH BEARS FOUGHT WELL BUT WERE BEATEN.

A General Dropping in Prices and Then a Rally—Great Blocks of Reading Throws at the Bulls-High Prices of America Stocks in London Used as a Weapon by the Bulls-A Lively Day on Change.

OON after the Stock Exchange opened for business this morning it became apparent that a contest between the giants of speculation was impending.

The bulls had the advantage of early quotations from London showing that Ameri. cans there were selling above the closing figures of Saturday, This they claimed would put the shorts to flight and lead to a big rally. The bears however, took a different view of things., and showed that they did not lack the courage of the convic-tions by hurling immense blocks of various stocks at their opponents at steadily declin-tions by hurling immense blocks of various stocks at their opponents at steadily declining prices.

Reading was their great objective point, and, nothing daunted by the fact that the wealthy Wormsers and others are outspoken bulls on the stock, they forced it down from 60 to 58½ in a very short time. One, five and even ten thousand shares were offered in single blocks by the Bateman-Cammack side, and the Exchange resounded with the shouts of the brokers who had been intensed with the execution of these orders. Northwest tumbled to 104½, St. Paul to 60%, Telegraph to 73, Jersey to 68%, Missour Pacific to 86%, Burlington to 123%, Omaha to 34, and Pacific Mail to 32½.

It soon locked as though the bulls would have to retire in short order, but they didn't, and, in fact, they finally succeeded by a herculean effort in turning the current.

Prices went like a shot until pretty much everything was about 1 per cent. above Saturday's closing figures. While this was not much of a victory, yet it demonstrated that there was still a vigorous opposition to the bear forces and that the market had some rallying power left, which was comforting to holders who by reason of the recent slump and wasting sway of margins are skating on pretty thin ice.

Atchison jumped from 90% to 92%.

The short interest is large, and this is clearly proven by the rates ruling in the loan crowd. To-day Chicago, Burlington and Quines was worth 1-16 per cent. New York Central 1-128 a 1-32, Lake Shore 1-64 and Reading flat to 1-84 for use.

The arrivals of gold since Saturday amounted to $1,135,667, all by the La Champagne. Total imports since July 23, 1887, about $24,400,000.

Sterling exchange is strong and nearly all the leading drawers post their rates at 4.82½ and 4.83½.

An Excellent Attendance from New York and the Surrounding Country.

Dead Heat for the Mile and a Furlou, Handicap Between Top Sawyer and Bordelnise, Which Was Run Off and Wor by the Former-Other Races Won by Bass Viel, Joe Mitchell, Tornado and Lex.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] CLIFTON, N. J., Oct. 17 .- A fine day, no racing elsewhere in this vicinity, and the fact that it is "blue Monday" for many of the mill operatives at Paterson, all aided to make the crowd the largest of the season. The track is in fine condition, and the racing proved quite good, although the favorite was bowled out in the first race by Bass Viol, who started at 15 to 1 against. The "old-timer," Joe Mitchell, squared the deal in the second race, with 2 to 1 freely laid against him. For the third race, the second choice reached the post first, followed by a pair of promising two-year-olds, of which Carrie G, was second and the Californian, Joe Clark, third.

The fourth race was the race of the day. It was a handicap at a mile and a furlong, and it resulted in a "dead heat" between the two second choices Top Sawyer and Bordclaise. The owners could not agree on a division and they ran it off with twenty minutes interval, when Top Sawyer proved the winner. The last race, a dash of seven furlongs, for maidens, was won by Lex.

BAILEY DEFIES POWDERLY.

The Former Makes a Ringing Speech Agains the Administration

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 17.—At the morning sion of the General Assembly of the Knights of Labor a score of leading delegates of Labor a score of leading delegates falled to respond to roll - call, among them being Quinn, of D. A. 49. New York. The Mileage Committee reported that the majority of absences, all of whom were Anti-Powderly men, had gone home.

The report of the Committee on Laws advising the dropping of two members from the Executive Board and giving Powderly the power of appointing his own cabinet, was again brought up for discussion and Mr. Carlton defended last year's Board.

The scenes were not as stormy as on Saturday, chiefly because the Powderly faction knew their strength, even the Barry-Balley crowd not claiming more than thirty followers in case they decide to leave the convention.

A vote on the proposition is expected at to-night's session.

W. H. Bailey made a ringing speech to-day, in which he reiterated the charges made by Barry and accused Powderly of usurping authority and allying himself with the Catholic Church. He said the search officers had been allying himself with the Catholic Church. He said a conspiracy of the general officers had been formed to defeat him (Balley) in his own district. "If the high-handed action proposed is taken," said he, "we will withdraw from the assembly." A voice repiled: "Go; we don't want you, or any of you. You are a pack of Anarchists." Balley continued, saying: "This one-man business won't work. I defy you and Powderly."

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
LONDON, Oct. 17.—Another and more seriou London, Oct. 17.—Another and more serious demonstration of the unemployed from Trafaigar Square occurred to-day, and it resulted in a riot. A deputation was sent to the Board of Aldermen to demand work. Their demand was refused, whereupon a mob started through the Strand for the Mansion House. They were stopped by the police and resisted with fists and bludgeons. Two policemen were injured. With a vigorous use of their clubs the police succeeded in dispersing the rioters. The city is now quiet.

Twenty of the rioters were arrested by the police during the struggle.

It was 4 o'clock before the crowds dispersed. No violence whatever was attemped, either by the police or the people, the former being stupefied by surprise and the latter well satisfied with their success.

license of Charles Krumm, of No. 165 Chrystie street, on the ground that beer was sold to Policeman Conway on Sunday, Sept. 11. The manager of the place is Charles Krumm, who has made several charges of blackmail against the police. For the defense, Mrs. Krumm testified that she knew of no beer being sold. With vast excitement, Krumm testified that Conway got some weiss beer and then arrested him for having music. "I showed him the license," continued Krumm, "and he said "I can't help it; you had better go down and see the old man." I said that the old man was no friend of mine. Then the officer drew a revolver and ran all around the place, like the coward he is."

TO DENOUNCE THE RECENT POLICE CLUB-BING IN UNION SQUARE.

Organized Labor to Have a Big Proce and a Big Meeting This Evening—Addresses Expected From Ex-Gov. Abbett, Thomas C. Pintt and a United States Sens

ROTESTING Progressive Labor men and women, and as many other citizens as choose to join them, are preparing for a large demonstration this evening in remonstrance against the interference of the police with the peaceful assemblage of the people.

The Police Department, though with less noise, is asactively preparing for the preservation of the peace of the meeting. It is expected in fully 10,000 Progressives will march to the sives will march to the plaza from the head-quarters of the forty-five labor unions and a half dozen Assembly district organizations of the Progressive Labor party. Many of the organizations will assemble on corners convenient to Union Square, and all the bodies will move towards the place of meeting at 7 o'clock, in accordance with the instructions of Editor Shevitch, who has charge of all the arrangements internally of the Webster Hall party for peace.

Sergius Schevitch will preside at the cottage stand, and there will be several trucks from which addresses will be made. Among the speakers will be Col. Richard Hinton, Prof. De Leon, Herbert A. Barker, of Albany, Progressive Labor candidate for Comptroller; Mrs. Col. Hinton and Mme. De Lacluse, from the cottage stand; Editor Alexander Jonas, Thomas O'Neill, Edward Goldsmith, the co-operative hatter, and Charles Sothern will preside on the trucks, and Candidates J. Edward Hall, Henry Emrich, Thaddeus B. Wakeman and Raymond F. Barnes will speat there. Hugh Greenar, of District Assembly 49, Knights of Labor, George E. McVesch, Frederick Haller, and Edward King, delegates at large of the Central Labor Union, Almont Barnes, Edward W. Saaring, C. J. Sweeney, George C. Block, and others will also speak.

Central Labor Union's plan of an internal Police Committee will be followed so far as possible, and one man in each one hundred will be provided with a badge indicating that he is a member of the Police Committee.

The Central Labor Union last evening voted that no flags save the Stars and Stripes should be carried by its subordinate organizations in the parade and at the meeting this evening, but the Socialists of the Progressive Labor party declare that they will not be dictated to by anyone or any body in the matter, and they will carry the red flag, which signifies to them the bloodkinship of all laboring men. The George Convention which will assemble also this evening will be asked to adjourn and take part in the demonstration, but little hope of their compliance with the request is expressed by the Progressive leaders.

While the instigators of the meeting are busy, Supt. Murray is not idle, and he had made careful preparations for any emergency. While he says he expects no trouble at all, he will be in readiness to meet may trouble that may arise. There will be five hundred policemen stationed in Union Square in and out of uniform, and under the direct command of Inspector Steers, in whose district the Square is located. Capts. Reilly, of the Nineteenth; Clinchy, of the Eighteenth; Carpenter, of the Twentieth, and Allaire, of the Eleventh, with twenty sergeants, will act an subordinates to Inspector Steers. Supt. Murray will be on hand in person, Five hundred other men will be held in reserve at the station, and by the use of the patrol wagons they can all be at the place in twenty minutes.
